Dear Laura,

I hope this email finds you well.

I'm writing to you with an urgent request regarding our recent paper, 'Social Media Impact on Mental Health: A Novel Approach', published in the Journal of Educational Technology. I've just been contacted by the editorial team – apparently, there's a critical, time-sensitive clarification needed for a few data points before it goes to the final proofing stage for the next issue. This came completely out of the blue, and they've given us a very tight deadline.

I've addressed their queries and made the necessary minor adjustments, which I've compiled into the attached file: manuscript_updates.docx. Could you please review it as soon as possible, ideally within the next few hours, and let me know your thoughts? We absolutely need to send this back by tomorrow morning to ensure it doesn't get pushed to a later issue.

Thanks for your immediate attention to this!

Best,

Kenji Singh
