Dear Dr. Schmidt,

Hope you're having a productive week.

I'm writing to you with an urgent matter regarding our paper, 'Post-Colonial Literature: A Novel Approach,' recently published in the *Astrophysical Journal*.

I've just received some unexpected, last-minute editorial feedback that requires our immediate attention. Apparently, there's a critical clarification needed on the methodology section that, if not addressed swiftly, could potentially impact future citations and our general presentation of the work. Given your upcoming presentation at the Journal of Archaeological Informatics next month, it's crucial we get these addressed *now* to ensure consistency and avoid any discrepancies in your talk.

I've compiled all the proposed changes and queries, along with my initial thoughts, in the attached document: 'manuscript_updates.docx'. Please review it as soon as possible and let me know your thoughts or any edits you deem necessary. I'm hoping we can finalize these by end of day tomorrow at the absolute latest, to send back to the editors.

My apologies for the short notice on this, but the editors were quite firm about the timeline.

Best regards,

Dr. Noah Costa
